

Student & Parent Attendance Contracts

Introducing Our Student and Parent Support Agreement

At Engineering UTC Northern Lincolnshire, we are proud to introduce our Student and Parent Support Agreement. This initiative aims to strengthen our partnership with parents and students in promoting regular school attendance, which is essential for academic success and preparing students for their future careers.

What is the Support Agreement?

Student Commitment

- Attend school every day and arrive on time.
- Actively participate in all classes.
- Communicate promptly with teachers and the attendance team about any attendance issues.

Parent/Guardian Commitment

- Ensure your child attends school daily and arrives on time.
- Schedule appointments outside of school hours whenever possible.
- Notify the school promptly of any absences and provide necessary documentation.
- Support your child in completing missed work due to absences.

School Commitment

- Monitor student attendance regularly and keep parents informed of any concerns.
- Provide support and resources to help students attend school regularly.
- Offer intervention programs and collaborate with families to establish effective attendance strategies.
- Safeguard the confidentiality of student attendance records

Why is it Important?

Consistent attendance fosters:

- Improved academic performance and readiness for future professional expectations.
- Recognition and rewards for exemplary attendance.
- Enhanced communication and support from the school community.

Preparing for the World of Work:

In the professional world, reliability and commitment to attendance are critical:

- Regular attendance habits instil discipline and responsibility, crucial traits in any workplace.
- Punctuality and consistent attendance are valued by employers and are integral to career success.

How to Participate:

To participate in our Support Agreement:

1. Review the details of the commitment with your child.
2. Discuss and agree on the commitments outlined.
3. Support your child in adhering to the attendance expectations.

By partnering together through this commitment, we aim to ensure that every student not only excels academically but also develops the essential skills and habits for success in their future careers.

Thank you for your support in promoting regular school attendance at Engineering UTC Northern Lincolnshire.
